Receiver's announcement n°6

Limit date for filing of claims

The bankruptcy receiver asks the creditors to file their claim until June 30, 2019.

For filing their claim, creditors are kindly requested to use only the forms published on this website and to provide the requested documentation.

Creditors who have already filed their claim in the insolvency process do not need to file a new claim.

The clients of BPES who would like to file a claim in the Luxembourg bankruptcy are kindly requested to read the circular published by the liquidators of BPES explaining the mechanism for the statements of claim applicable to the clients of BPES. The complete circular is available on the website of BPES: http://liquidator-bpes.ch/files/circulaire_8_fr.pdf

The BPES liquidators mention that they will directly enforce all claims coming from the claim securities (notes, bonds) of their clients in the Luxembourgish insolvencies.

Luxembourg, 19 December 2018

The bankruptcy receiver
